

Mapping a Demon Malady: Cholera Maps and Affect in 1832

Cholera maps chart the movement of the disease, and the terror that accompanied it.

Sailors' Health and National Wealth

Presented as part of the special Politics Issue

That the federal government created this health care system for merchant mariners in the early American republic will surprise many.

Cancer and Captivity: Reflections on Affliction in Puritan and Modern Times

A TRUE
HISTORY
OF THE
Captivity & Restoration

OF
Mrs. MARY ROWLANDSON,
A Minister's Wife in New-England.

Wherein is set forth, The Cruel and Inhumane Usage she underwent amongst the Heathens, for Eleven Weeks time: And her Deliverance from them.

Written by her own Hand, for her Private Use: And now made Publick at the earnest Desire of some Friends, for the Benefit of the Afflicted.

Whereunto is annexed,
A Sermon of the Possibility of God's Forsaking a People that have been near and dear to him.

Preached by Mr. Joseph Rowlandson, Husband to the said Mrs. Rowlandson:
It being his Last Sermon.

Printed first at New-England: And Re-printed at London, and sold by Joseph Poole, at the Blue Bowl in the Long-Walk, by Christ's-Church Hospital. 1682.

It seemed to me that the conditions of cancer and captivity shared physical, emotional, and spiritual correspondences.

Public Health and Public Good

The resolve of Philadelphia's medical elite as well as their patients was quickly tested after the war by the yellow fever epidemic of 1793.

Civil Unions in the City on a Hill: The real legacy of "Boston Judges"

The English Puritans who founded Massachusetts in 1630 formed a society as committed to religion as any in history. But for them, marriage was a civil union, a contract, not a sacred rite.

Parenting for the “Rough Places” in Antebellum America

MARRIED.

Published by James Baillie, 37 1/2 St. near 3rd Avenue, N.Y.

Sedgwick's evolving ideas about her children's natures and her ability to shape them reflected an emerging American skepticism of the perfectibility of the individual and society at large, and an increasing emphasis on the determining power of innate characteristics.

There is No There There: Women and Intermarriage in the Southwestern Borderlands

It is exceedingly difficult to trace women, but particularly non-elite women of color, through the sources that are available.

Family Albums of War: Carte de Visite Collections in the Civil War Era

Nineteenth-century viewers were just as likely to envision war through the more personalized lens of the family album as through the battlefield.

Marriage under Adversity

This timely piece of work reminds us that the rights we sometimes take for granted have not always been available to all.

Presbyterians in Love

He was a man stretched between worlds: one of cautious belief, another of passion and sentiment; one of rational learning, another of devotion and deep emotion.
